Program

I.

Chaconne — Bach-Busoni

Sonata No. 3 in F Minor, Op. 5 — Brahms

Allegro maestoso
Andante
(in some of the earlier pianoforte works of Brahms, the composer was inspired by poetry. This appears to be so in the Andante. Inscribed above the score are the following lines by Sternau:
"Day has gone and the moon has come;
She sees two hearts in love made one
That blissfully cling together.")
Scherzo
Retrospect
Allegro
