Artur Rubinstein in Poland

Special to The New York Times.

WARSAW, June 3—Artur Rubinstein arrived by air here today for a series of concerts—the first in his native land since 1938. The pianist was accompanied by his wife and their two children. At the airport they were greeted by nearly 200 friends, former schoolmates and relatives, who welcomed them with kisses and flowers.