Kate darling,

I just got your letter from monday night – the mail seems to have gone bats! Even your letter to London took 3 days! – I am most delighted and excited about your cook find – grab her – she sounds very well in all respects – It is a load off my mind – thank you!

I just got back from the airport where I put our little Eva on a plane. Poor child I am quite worried about her – and pray she can extricate herself from this dreadful impasse! She is a little better physically but her morale is still very unsteady and God knows how she is going to react to Bill and the other man in view of Bills (after a heart to heart conversation with David) leaving the situation unchanged - please be her moral help in those next days and call her so she can talk to someone -

The check up in Paris proved that physically she is OK but Lipstich finds she needs psychiatric care (that is only for your inform.) Her mumms are direct result from nerves - she still looks very thin & pale is on Librium (happy pills) they seem to help so far!

Ach this Bill, I could beat him up for such light headedness and lack of serious responsability in taking a girl like Eva for a wife and weighing her with 3 children and then proceeding about his own business as if nothing much happened and expecting her to be a super woman - not even realising that he did not make her a woman in the full sense! I hope his attitude becomes a little more mature and becoming a man of 38! -

She has been a delight to have around so loving tender grateful and trying to have fun – momentarily forgetting her worries and looking lovely everybody losing their hearts to her in Poland France & England. She had a lovely get-together with Monique here – the poor girl is still waiting for the divorce – but very much in love both of them. She came with us to the airport and spend the day yesterday and was at the concert. –

Yesterday we went to the theatre with Chapros (Myrons), Marek his invitation – He told us the story of the dinner – it seems it was Helena Rub. they eventually got there 45 min. late in icy atmosphere while the fish was being served! Horrors! –

We are bursting about Alina's straight A for Dostoievsky I felt she is bound to get something like that! She must be really pleased – So glad her dinner was a success! –
What is so happened to Johnny he never wrote even one word Arthur is quite hurt – I don't understand it. Is he missing some new grudges or simply does not consider that he should at least answer his father's card? – I still hope that some cards got lost or came too late or something.
How are the airconditioners do they work? – That gramophone is a nuisance – what to do?
The Radziwill's called us immediately and were most anxious to see us – I had them in the royal Box – Stash's father Prince Janusz just for a visit from Poland was there too – they were greatly impressed with the open flowing hall orations (standing) etc

After the concert they invited us 3 and Lesley & Puffin Asquith for supper at the Savoy grill it was very charming. Arthur liked Lesley. I thought she was very nice. Last night great sensation Heifetz canceled two sold out concerts and left for California - ~~the~~ seems to have had a case of nerves or something like that. Fine thing Roman is in Paris now for a few days - We invited him to stay with us when we come back on the 27th it won't be long because Arthur wants to leave on the 30th it is a bit rushed I think as the concert is on the 29th and I think he want me to give a supper home! — But it shall be done.

Arthur has been terribly sweet and good humored — happy with his tremendous success everywhere. —

Did you get the check from Arthur and my letters from Paris? —

What a mess with Salan now I suppose they will start the whole mess from the begining!

I must finish — all my love — keep warm it will be only a few days more before we shall hug! —

love Nela
