June 12, 1988

Dear Dele—You are home now and I missed seeing you. I wrote the Joe Cotterins you were there and sent them the Polonaise program with a darling picture of you—not so with me. Ugh!

It was such a nice reunion at my old friend's home—only one Phipps absent with a few children. I remember when Norris the daughter of my friend Molly Caughey and it was under a tent on this enormous porch. It was too beautiful.

Lady Bird Johnson spoke and she is such a darling woman. She signed her book, 'Lived...'
"Wild Flowers across America" so many came from New York, Mary and Mrs. Rockefeller came by helicopter. He is very fond of Lady Byrd. But I missed you.
About my friend Pierre Jammet, whom you met with me in Paris as I was staying there at the Bristol he owned at that time. Now he owns the Pavillon Henri IV. in St. Germain-en-Laye near Mont Cristo. The home of Dumas. They say the rooms are luxurious at the hotel and you can be sure of that. I remember at the Bristol they had Flanwells for your toes (feet) and a pethrull towel etc. in the bath.
Everyone says it's 20 minutes on the crack R.E.R. line and the lunch is super. I told Pierre you would give him a kiss from me. And I send you pots and a abundance & affection. Ami.4
OLD WESTBURY GARDENS
Old Westbury, Long Island
Open from Early May to Late October Westbury House, a superb example of Georgian architecture. One of Long Island's showplaces set in a flowering wonderland. Long Island Expressway, 22 miles from New York.
Mrs. Arthur Kubinstei
22 Square de l'Ave Toche
Paris, 75116, France