CABLE ADDRESS "MARJALB"

February 2, 1973

Mrs. Arthur Rubinstein
22 Square de l'Avenue Foch
Paris 16°, France

Dear Mrs. Rubinstein:

This will bring you up to date on various matters.

The corrected galleys of Mr. Rubinstein's Autobiography have been sent to the German and French publishers as you will see from the enclosed copies of letters from Cornelia Wohlfarth dated January 29, 1973 and from Rosalie Siegel dated January 25, 1973. I also enclose copy of my letter to Alfred A. Knopf Incorporated dated January 31, 1973.

Mr. Lazar informed us yesterday he is still awaiting the contract with the English publisher. He also reported he is negotiating with other foreign publishers and will keep us informed of developments.

We have informed Eva, Alina and John of their shares of the 1972 income from the Autobiography. Copies of our letters of this day to them and to Mr. Lustig are enclosed.

The investment program you approved for Jason's new trust and the trusts for Eva, Alina and John has been completed and copies of the letters dated January 23, 1973 which Abe Bienstock signed are enclosed for your file.

Upon receipt of the cable confirming that the Book of the Month Club record proposal is unacceptable we so informed Alan Kayes of RCA.

Dr. Hallig received a new print of the Concerto but he informed us after screening it yesterday that regretably the sound is bad though the picture is good. He is exploring alternative possibilities of improving the sound and we expect to receive a note from him on the subject within the next few days. He also indicated the print of Love of Life is very good.

We will continue to keep you informed as matters progress.

Incidentally, the New York Times Radio Station WQXR marked Mr. Rubinstein's birthday with an hour-long program featuring the Chopin piano concerto No. 1 and many laudatory remarks.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Seth E. Frank
