Dear Mrs. Rubenstein:

Because of my almost incessant travelling during the past few months, I am sorry that it has not been possible before to send to you the completed portraits which were ordered earlier this year.

They are however now ready, but before sending half of them to Paris as you requested I felt it best to check with you whether they will now reach you in time. If you will be good enough to let me hear from you I shall be glad to send the portraits wherever you decide.

With warmest personal regards and remembrances to yourself and "le cher maitre".

Sincerely,

Yousuf Karsh.
