June 1, 1959

Hello darling —

Messages from Madame Tamara and a letter from you all in one day. I will wrap the album and send it immediately to Era. No polish paper has arrived as yet but will take care of all details. — I've sent the check to Mr. Stein.

Zosia came yesterday to see the children. I wanted to take the children to her but she insisted on coming — bringing chocolates as usual. She is very feeble and so thin.

I have called most of the large department stores and

No luck on the girdle so I'll short up Madison and see what I can do - can't Marnie put a lining in the one you have?

We are all sorry, deeply so, to have missed the concert with Krips.

I have the papers make refills and the arrids. I called Dr. Walls - he is attending to the prescription for Hexamye. I didn't want to do it!

Guess this is the last scribble - we'll see you soon — Anna says she is so disappointed!! She was planning to get off the plane dirty!!

Much love
Kate

I spent Mr. R's birthday money - I hope he will be pleased with what I got at Tiffany's!