Dear Mrs. Steele,

Thanks for your letter of July 30,1971 to which I answer only today as I had no secretary so far.

As I shall be in New York in November, I will give you the programs for the tour after January, personally.

But I confirm that I will play with Mr. Ormandy on Nov. 15, The Brahms B flat and Rachmaninoff Second Concerto.

For the concert with the Minnesota Orchestra I would propose MOZART D minor and Schumann's E minor .

for MILWAUKEE Beethoven's Sonata a flat op 31, Carnaval,Schumann, and after the intermission Waltzes Nobles & Sentimentales of Ravel, plus Chopin's BARCAROLLE 2 WALTZES and SCHERZO B flat.

I see that you also mention the old Chicago's program, as far as I know I am playing in Chicago with the orchestra, in November. Please confirm if there is a mistake involved ?

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Rubinstein
