Dear Maestro:

How lucky I was that I reached the plane in time since I had come down to Lod specially to say goodby to you and Mrs. Rubinstein. I hope you had a pleasant trip home.

There are times that one finds words completely inadequate. This is one of those times. The concert you gave in Jerusalem was most moving for us all; I think that the audience conveyed their feelings to you. Your concert is still the talk of the town - it was truly a most memorable evening.

I thought you would enjoy having the enclosed clippings: the reviews of the two concerts from the Jerusalem Post and the covers of the magazine sections of two of our most widely read newspapers, one a morning paper and the other an afternoon paper.

We have a rendezvous planned for next year and I am already eagerly awaiting that time. Until then, to you and Mrs. Rubinstein, my fondest good wishes. And, again, thank you.

Yours, ever

Teddy Kollek
