The Cincinnati Post
Cincinnati, OH
July 20, 1987
D. 117,216

This week on the tube

By Rick Kennedy
Post staff reporter

What to see, or avoid, this week on TV:

Monday

"Mork & Mindy," 5:30 p.m., Channel 19. Nice rerun teaming Robin Williams with his idol, Jonathan Winters.

"Unnatural Causes," 9 p.m., Channel 5. Above-average 1986 TV movie with John Ritter as terminally ill Vietnam vet.

"Cactus Flower," 8:05 p.m., WTBS. Dated '60s cinema pairing Ingrid Bergman and Goldie Hawn.

"Rubinstein Remembered," 9 p.m., Channel 48. Compelling hour-long look into the life of late pianist Arthur Rubinstein.

TV tips

Tuesday

"Humanoids from the Deep," 12:05 a.m., Channel 64. Stars humanoids Doug McClure, Vic Morrow ... blaaahh!

"Cincinnati Reds," 7:30 p.m., Channel 5. At Philadelphia.

"Enemy Among Us," 8 p.m., Channel 9. Sensitive drama about AIDS and teens. Co-produced by Cincinnati's Bradley Wigor.

"Miss Teen USA," 9 p.m., Channel 9. Strange follow-up to the AIDS-teens special. The star-spangled Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders "entertain." Check your brains at the door.