OREGON JOURNAL

11/24/69

A NEW RECORDING by the venerable pianist, Artur Rubinstein, is always welcome and especially when he chooses for his performance a work as romantic, warm and lyrical as Schubert's B Flat sonata. Despite his years, Rubinstein's interpretive artistry, instead of showing any diminution, seems to grow with the years. This is a thoroughly delightful rendering of the Schubert music. RCA LSC-3122.