Kate dearest,

thank you for your letters – did you get my letter-post card from Zürich? – We had a few sweet days in Paris – relaxing going to the movies – I had a super dinner – for the Golschmann's & the Sions – after dinner came the Beauvilles – (together again) and two of their friends – Next morning we flew to London – we have the most beautiful suite here – I am writing letters like crazy – it is so easy here! Arthur played the 6th in BBC. beautifully – yesterday we listened to the tape of the Mozart concertos – divine. Last night we saw an excellent murder story "The Smell of murder" – went early to bed. – Arthur is rehearsing now the Brahms with Steinberg – I washed – scrubbed and am waiting for him to come back. The weather is still incredible – all the Londoners sit in the Park and pretend they are in the Côte d'Azur! – How are you Kate? How is the home front? – I was so happy you liked Bill's speech and the whole atmosphere there – I miss Erwina Bill and the cicipkis! – Wanda send me color slides that Mrs. Perkinpine made of them they are so lovely! – How is Alina and Janecek? – Did Laura get back? Olga stayed with us two days.

Encarna is working hard but always smiling and pleasant - I took her to the movies, shoping and to diner once - She was delighted. Still no sign from Martine I suppose she will come the 15th of October - We are managing so well I don't want to write just yet! I am not certain if I shall go to Spain (12 days) or Poland to organise the concert in my fathers memory - (don't peep about it to grama). Had letters from grama, she seems to have been a little weak for a few weeks - but is better now. Had a letter from Ala she is still at St. Joseph wrote to her again rather nastily but it is all so hopeless! — Bronek wrote that he had a letter from Paul from the hospital — something with his heart?! — but not at all serious — We wried for more detail — but left for London before the his came — I hope it is nothing else except too many cigarettes or such — Did Eva hear from him? — He should now be in Chicago — but what adress? — Did Lina see Salaman and what is the verdict — and how much longer are we going to pay that stinker! Did you get in touch with Margaret? We will be home good willing the 9 or 10th November — Katie dear all the best to you love & kisses — to the cipkis Bless you all
