Dear Mrs Rubinstein,

We were so delighted with your lovely book which is a joy to read. We love the illustrations which are quite different to ordinary cookbooks and extremely good.

It was a very kind thought of yours. We are sorry Bob "jumped the gun" - for it arrived the day after he wrote you.

I can tell you he is looking forward to some succulent dishes!

It would give us such pleasure if you would have luncheon with us when you are in London.

If we are not at Bath we shall be at our little 'pad' beside the River Thames at Marlow.

With warmest greetings from us
both, yours very sincerely,
Anne Dickinson.
