Dear Mummy. This morning.

How are you and Daddy?

Sunday, when we went to the Ballet, I found out the most awful thing in the world.
Markova sprained her ankle!!
She did not come here to San Francisco, but was left behind in Los Angeles.

Muriel had some opera glasses and I looked and I could see very well, but I ~~thought~~ thought it was Markova, but it was Nora Kaye.

Our play after the Ballet had lots of succes, everybody said.

Renie, the little girl who is staying with us, was very funny in the play, and her brother Michèle was very good.

Muriel insists that I tell you that if I work hard I will be a famous dancer. I don't believe a word of it, do you?

I hope Daddy's hand does not hurt any more, and that you are ~~at~~ having a very good rest,

Love and Kisses, Eva
