(That young man, the dear friend of Brown's is coming to see me soon — the one I thought would be ideal for Lili. He has lost his mother which is why he hasn't been to see me — Will find out if he is "taken" or not — He is ~~quite~~ an unusual young man — 6 ft 1 in — & very intelligent & musical —

My Darling Mehusha —

You goodness never ends! Your thought is always turned toward others, with love and concern and generosity — He does arrive!!! I was so surprised and thrilled! I love it — Except for taking it in (which is easily done) it fits me perfectly. And you know those are the colors I like — It is so beautifully made and must have been very expensive, I know! I do thank you with all my heart! And for your sweetness to Jeff — He has been in Bakersfield — gets back tomorrow and will be excited at receiving your poster and post card — He will be writing you — And, as if all this wasn't enough, — the lettuce dryer and crisper arrived in perfect shape — Jessie and I are so happy with it — and put it to use immediately — The lettuce actually tastes better for completely de-watering it — Which we never managed to do very well —

This is a big addition to the kitchen — Just called Johnnie. He said to just write you yesterday & sent pictures so you and Arthur are up to date — said all was well there & that he was terribly busy inventing music — Also did two days filming in San F. & Judy & baby went along —

Darling, I am enclosing a list of a few more books that perhaps Arthur would like — I have studied the remainders in the catalogue & came up with these — which are v. nice. Thought if you had marked catalogue you could read them over. If you wish and will send them air freight to Paris — (or wherever you say) Books moving slowly of the moment but the Earthquake & Bishops month closed.

Sprained my ankle helping old Eleanor down our front steps last Sun. She caught her heel — saved herself but threw me — It could have been much worse & I am grateful —

Hope you rec. both of my letters — I don't expect an answer — If you wish any from the enclosed list face Mme Fajon write me —

Still missing you and our breakfasts together — Dinners (my table) at breakfast so terrible — We were always alone & always had so much to talk over! Kisses and love (much love on both from Paris)
