Dear Nela:

It was good talking with you the other day.

The contract with Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., grants to Knopf the right to license periodical publication after book publication and provides that the proceeds are divided equally between Knopf and the author.

Knopf regards the two week serialization in the New York Post as having provided valuable publicity for the book far in excess of the $500 payment made by the Post. A copy of the license agreement is enclosed. Knopf also has communicated with newspapers in other cities regarding serialization and is awaiting their responses.

You will be gratified to know that the book is seventh on the New York Times best seller list after having been tenth the week before. We also understand it is first on Brentano's best seller list in San Francisco.

Affectionate best wishes to you and Arthur,

ALB:DM
