Hello darling — well I got myself this far yesterday and have promised to make myself go on to Paris today! It has been a wonderous trip and I cling to the last moments of it, unwilling to give up. The weather has been simply divine — the ride from Munich yesterday was through such beautiful mountains, very different from the Alps.
Is Venice gay and exciting for "you all"? Hope so — In Berne I happened on a very good Italian restaurant and had minestrone, lasagne and green tomatoes salad!

I am writing this in bed this morning with the sun pouring in my windows, a cool breeze and a heavenly blue sky — what more can one ask for? Except, perhaps, a cup of coffee!!

Much love to all

Kate
