Paris, 16, France

Dear Mr. Rubinstein:

We will need to know fairly soon what orchestra repertoire you are contemplating for next season's dates. I understand you have considered the following:

2 Brahms, No 1 and No 2
Schumann
Chopin ~~1~~ and 2
Beethoven ~~2~~ and 4, 5, 3
~~Rachmaninoff - Paganini Fantasy~~
Saint Saens 2
Mozart d minor

Do let me know if you have made a final selection.

At this moment the tentative schedule on the west coast is as follows:

October 28 - Los Angeles recital
" 31 - San Diego Symphony (Reh. Oct.30) Fijalkowska.
November ~~5 - Pasadena recital~~
" 8 - Los Angeles Philharmonic (Reh. 7) Fijalkowska
" 11 - San Francisco recital (would you accept Masonic Hall, since the Opera House is not available until January?)
" 13 - Portland recital
" 16 - Seattle Symphony (Reh. 15) condition Fijalkowska
" 18 - Vancouver recital
" 21 - Salt Lake City Symphony (Reh.20) Fijalkowska

With best wishes,

As ever cordially,

Walter Prude

Dear Mr. Prude,

I am writing to you again because I did not find your letter in your envelope until today, regarding the suggestions of the orchestra concerts and of my tour in the West.

I accept all of those concerts but with the condition that they engage per contract Miss Fijalkowska for 1976.

I would rather give her the chance because Duchable is beginning to make a fine carreer in Europe and can be satisfied with some engagements on the East.

I am enclosing the repertory for my orchestra concerts, at their choice.

Most cordially,

Arthur Rubinstein
