Dear Maestro:

It was a great privilege meeting you and your charming wife and having the opportunity to exchange views.

So that you may plan your visit in the Bay Area, I am providing you with this brief schedule:

Thursday, January 23, 1975: Departure from Los Angeles on United Air Lines, flight No. 510, at 11 a.m., with Dr. David Hamburg. You and Mrs. Rubinstein will be picked up by me at the airport and will be taken to lunch with Professors Pauling, Nicholls, Omenn and Hamburg. You will be taken to the St. Francis Hotel later on Thursday afternoon. Thursday evening will be free.

Friday, January 24, 1975: At 1:30 p.m., I shall be taking you and Mrs. Rubinstein to lunch in San Francisco. Thereafter, you and Mrs. Rubinstein will be taken to Stanford where you will meet Professor Lederberg and tour the campus. A room at the Faculty Club will be available for you and Mrs. Rubinstein to rest. The program begins Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. A reception will be held thereafter in your honor at the Faculty Club. You will then be taken by limousine back to your hotel in San Francisco and your remaining time thereafter will be free. Your return airplane tickets are "open."

The television people plan to record conversations between you and other members of the program on Thursday and Friday afternoon after lunch and at the campus.

Again, let me thank you for your gracious participation in this undertaking.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Edward Rubenstein
