MARY CAMPBELL

May 17, 1973

Dear Mr. Rubinstein,

A lady at your Carnegie Hall party yesterday told me that she was going to take your book (her copy) to the Drake Hotel and leave it, asking that you autograph it.

If you would be so kind, as to grant me the same favor--which you didn't promise because I didn't ask--I would be very happy.

Then you can leave the book at the Drake desk again, with my name on the envelope, and I'll come and pick it up.

Thank you--whether you have time to autograph this or not. I was delighted to see you at Carnegie Hall. And indeed you didn't drop a note.
