THE BUSONI SOCIETY

February 10, 1982

Dear Arthur,

To my great surprise and delight I have just learned that you are living in Geneva. This past Monday Martha Argerich spent the day with me at my house here near Lausanne and told me that she had recently had a wonderful visit with you.

It has been about fifteen years since I have seen you. I think it was in Chicago in 1967 when we both visited Rudolph Ganz on his 90th Birthday. Since then I have done many mad things, even musically. -- for instance, last summer at the Edinburgh Festival I conducted Brahm's 1st Concerto from the keyboard. (I didn't want to give away that opening tutti to any conducto

I'll be here until the last week of the month and I would love to pay you a brief visit at a time convenient to you. Please do let me know if it is at all possible.

With all the warmest regards and admiration,

Daniell
