Dear Mr. Rubinstein:

How kind you are! I shall be delighted to have lunch with you in Omaha on march 9th, and to continue the conversation after lunch. I'll do all possible research before then, and make the interview as easy as possible for you.

You told me you would be staying at the Drake Hotel in Chicago, but where will you be staying in Omaha? Is there any special procedure I should follow in getting through to you at the Omaha hotel?

I am most grateful for your cooperation,and your generosity only inspires me all the more to write a sympathetic account of your life.

Yours sincerely,

Aylesa Forsee

I shall mail you a copy of my book on Casals. You won't have time to read it, but a glance at it will give you an idea of the kind of thing I do.
