Dear Mr. Rubenstein:—

Thank you very much for your letter and the check I went yesterday and deposited it and today I will be busy writing checks. I also deposited your S.S. check for $120.00 in your own account. There seems to be a great misunderstanding somewhere but the only

"list" concerning your whereabouts is one typed by Mrs. Clemens giving only the cities you would be in but no ~~thotels~~ hotels. We were sure of only Venice and Lali did write you there but apparently missed you. She also wrote you to Paris.

No doubt you heard from Mr. Marek the strange story of their appearing here for dinner one night. We never heard the end.

of the story. I hope he told it to you as Paul and I are naturally very curious. We all received our invitations to the luncheon at Yale in today's mail. Also the directions for Brown arrived a couple of days ago. They are for Brown cards Sunday and Monday June 3rd and 4th on June 5th (Tuesday) you have a very important

date with your daughter Alina. That night is the Fathers Dinner at Nightingale.

See you in a few days –

Love from Kate
