January 18, 1945

Dear Daddy,

Yesterday the baby came. It is a little girl. She has blond hair, blue eyes and the the nurses say its the prettiest baby in the hospital. She weighs 7 pounds and two onces. Mummy is feeling fine now. The baby came in only three hours. She will be called Alina. We bought Mummy a present. It is a little plant growing in a vase. the vase is in the shape of a little Dutch boy. Mummy has already called twice. We called Muriel, Vera, Laura, Pat, and Cecil and a Lot of mummy's friends they are all very happy. Mildred stayed over night on the 17th and the baby came at three ocklock that same day. Mummy left early in the morning.

Your Loving Son,

Paul