Re Mr. Vines

27 February 1971

Mrs. J. N. Clemans
Secretary to Mr Artur Rubinstein
The Drake Hotel
56th Street and Park Avenue
New York 10022

Dear Mrs Clemans,

Thank you so much for your prompt reply to my letter of 15 February. Let me assure you that I would never want to impose on Mr. Rubinstein nor would I expect him to grant me an interview, unless he really can find a few free moments. His schedule is overwhelming even to contemplate!

In the meantime, I shall continue with my research. After 16 April and the conclusion of his tour, if Mr. Rubinstein can dictate a few words to you, some reminiscences or recollections of his relationship with Vines, I should be most grateful. As for meeting him personally, I should be delighted, if it can be arranged because, in this way, I would offer my readers the additional dimension of direct contact with somebody who knew Vines personally. Otherwise, notes dictated to you will have to suffice.

Many thanks again for your offer of assistance.

Cordially,

E Brody
