PARIS, XVIe

Dear Kate —

Thanks for your sweet letter and oh! for finding the Toscanini picture!

We all miss you very much and envy Alina for seeing you tomorrow —

My voice is so so — there is still some little thing in my throat — but at least I know for sure that the whole thing is completely benign.

We leave for Israel on Saturday and a hard work starts for then on – but I'm used to it.
Here is a check for $ 3000 for your housekeeping – I hope it's enough until our arrival – if there are bigger bills, send them to Paris.
A big hug, dear Kate, from your devoted

Arthur Rubinstein
