POLISH PIANIST WILL NOT GO TO ITALY

New York — Arthur Rubenstein, eminent Polish pianist, has canceled a proposed tour of Italy because of new Italian laws affecting Jews, the American manager, S. Hurok, said today.

Hurok said the artist had returned to Premier Mussolini the order of commander of the Italian Cross which Il Duce had conferred upon him, along with an autographed photograph Mussolini had given him.