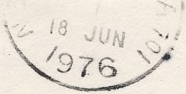
Dear Mr. Rubinstein,

I am listening to the ballades you recorded on "The Brahms I Love" this evening, and I feel I have to tell you how much I enjoy listening to you play. I don't think I've ever heard a pianist whose sensitivity and delicacy can compare with yours. But someone must tell you this everyday. I guess I just want to thank you for all the pleasure listening to you has given me. Sincerely,

Cynthia Payne



NICE
